

Figure 1: A 3D surface plot showing the function $f(x, y)$ over the domain $[0, 1] \times [0, 1]$. The surface is colored according to the function value, ranging from blue (low) to red (high). The plot shows a complex, multi-peaked structure with a maximum value of approximately 1.0.