

Figure 1: A 2D heatmap visualization of a function over a square domain. The color scale ranges from blue (low values) to red (high values). The function has a prominent peak in the upper right quadrant and a saddle point in the lower left quadrant.